

Press release – Loch Melfort and Kilninver Company Limited 18.11.2024

Loch Melfort and Kilninver Company Limited (LMKC) have followed up their successful launch events with a repeat of last year's table top sale in Kilmelford Village Hall. Held jointly with the Village Hall, this year the sale opened on Remembrance Sunday just after the two minute silence to a steady stream of eager buyers looking for bargains.

As before, the hard-working team organising the sale had attracted over 20 sellers who had arranged their tables with their wares or items they no longer wanted, or even a mixture of both. Many generous local businesses had donated fantastic raffle prizes and when LMKC's Chairman Stuart Cannon drew the winning tickets, there were a lot of happy winners gladly claiming their prizes.

All day the wonderful team in the kitchen worked hard to provide tea and coffee, sandwiches and many homemade cakes and biscuits at a very reasonable price. Locals and visitors from further afield welcomed the chance to catch up with friends and purchase some bargains ranging from garden tools, clothes, toys, bric a brac, candles, coffee and bird food.

After expenses, nearly £900 was raised and divided between the Hall Association and LMKC.

Our next joint event is the popular Kilmelford Christmas Fair, which this year is on Saturday 7th December. Santa's Grotto will be back, bigger than ever, along with stalls selling a wide range of items suitable for presents for all the family, clothing, locally produced food, calendars and cards, decorations and items for the home. Teas, coffees and home baking will be served at very reasonable prices. There will be a raffle and a Tombola (and donations to either will be very welcome), plus a Children's Lucky Dip, so all will find something they enjoy. Entrance costs £1 (what about children?) and includes a raffle ticket. Please come along to the Kilmelford and Kilninver Hall between 10am and 4pm on 7th December, and get fully in the mood for Christmas.
