Type of membership - please complete as appropriate

Ordinary Membership for residents within the area covered by Kilmelford and Kilninver Community Council (see website for list of postcodes). Must support the Company's objectives. Entitled to vote at general meetings and AGMs and stand for election to Board. Minimum £10, or if aged between 16 and 25, minimum £5.

Associate Membership for those not resident in the area covered by the above community council and for all organisations. Must support the Company's objectives. Not entitled to vote at general meetings and AGMs or stand for election to Board, but can have a say and show support. Minimum £10, or if aged between 16 and 25, minimum £5.

Junior Membership for ages 12 to 15. No residence qualification but must support Company's objectives. Not entitled to vote at general meetings and AGMs or stand for election to Board, but can have a say and show support. Minimum £1.

The fees are due when you apply for membership, and then on 1 March each year. If you apply during any year after 1 March, your initial payment helps us with the costs of maintaining our records, as well as funding general costs. There will be no apportionment of the fees.

Please either send us cash or a cheque for your appropriate fee, and any additional donation you wish to make, payable to LMCC Steering Group

Or make a bank transfer for your appropriate fee and any additional donation you wish to make, to LMCC Steering Group, Bank of Scotland, Sort Code 802260 , Account number 25735068 , adding your name as a reference.

You consent to LMKC Ltd keeping a note of your contact details for the purpose of informing you of meetings and events, fundraising, surveys and membership renewals. Your personal data will not be shared with any other organisation and will be stored securely in compliance with the rules covering data protection.

I accept the above and I wish to apply for membership of LMKC Limited.
